

1979-1980

Neal Gifford and Chester Brinser represent "C" Company in doubles action.

Barry Davis serves for "A" Company.

Captain Green and Major Gale supervising swimming.

"A" and "C" Companies battle in a preliminary heat.

Intramurals are a major activity here at Camden Military Academy, assuring every student an active part in competitive athletics. Directed by Commander John Feltham, cadets participate in sports of their choice in preparation for company playoffs each six weeks, with each member of the winning company receiving one merit. Except for those playing in intermural athletics, all cadets participate in the intramural program.