

Experience, Necessary for the Future

Team ball is what it's all about.

Fewer than usual, the Junior Varsity still played excellent basketball on the court. The team joined with Varsity frequently to assist in play. Experience helped the players to be patient on the court and to play team ball.

Seventh, eighth, and ninth grade players comprise the Junior High Basketball Team. Coach Fahey practiced the squad hard to master the art of playing as a team.

JV Spartans (right) watch eagerly, waiting to play ball. Junior Varsity Basketball (below), standing: Coach Huff, PS Scott (42), Leggette (32), Snyder (22); kneeling: McLaurin (11), Hood (24), Olson (4). Junior High Basketball (bottom), standing: Bell (12), Calcutt (50), PS Scott (42), Jamison (32); kneeling: Rogers (35), Johnson (43), Stevens (40), Adams (3), Shuler (15). Opposite page (counter-clockwise, top): Junior High players listen as Coach Fahey develops strategy. Scorekeepers Livesay, PG Bigness, and Garrison keep score and time. Junior High's defense traps player in back court. PS Scott awaits to drive with the ball.

