

Saturday night's alive.

Let's boogie. Once in the fall, again before Christmas furlough, at the Junior/Senior Prom, and finally for Commencement, cadets and their dates and their families and their friends get down on the dance floor. Commander John Feltham and his volunteer committee book bands, set up the gym, serve refreshments in a candlelit setting, and then take it all down. A basketball game may be underway only hours before, or graduation may take place just after, but these swingers effect a metamorphosis no less impressive than that proverbial transformation from ugly duckling to beautiful swan. Get out there and express yourself!
