

"C" of blue.

Cadets who call themselves Spartans worked to earn a Block "C" whether they lettered in football, basketball, baseball, soccer, track, or drill team. But the time and effort pay off after the roar of the crowd is stilled, the casts and charliehorses are forgotten. Captain Steven Tucker finds the action and calls the plays for club excursions as diverse as going to the state fair and shopping and dining at Columbia Mall. Block "C" Club not only plays ball, but has one too.
