

What nice line.

Tempera, terra cotta, and triglyph are meaningful terms to amateur aestheticians united in artistic activity and appreciation. Captain David Green, Mrs. Lanning P. Risher, and Mrs. Charles R. White contribute an élan vital to Fine Arts Club meetings and excursions which this year ran a gamut from gallery going to the Springs Mills exhibition, to a hobbyist's discussion of model railroad-ing.

Left, Secretary Self, President Goza, Vice-President Berryhill, and Major Green (advisor) review famous art works from the past. Below, the Fine Arts Club: CD Reed, Terry, Capell, IB Baucom, Adcock, Hudson, Uzcategui, Kemp, Berryhill, Cifuentes, Morris, WF Williams, Geiger, Petrovitz, Major Green, LM Baucom, Sammons, Garbinsky, Goza, Armstrong, RA Reed, Boyd, Self, Maltby.

