FERVENTLY FORENSIC

Sport for the mastermind.

Rising at four a.m. and taking three hour bus rides to remote places characterized the on-going season of the Lanning P. Risher Chapter of the National Forensics League. Members of the team participated in numerous tournaments both in and out of state this year. In competition, led by Coaches Kelly Schrader and Robert Gard, team members competed in one of the categories: Original Oratory, Extemporaneous Speaking, Humorous Interpretation, Lincoln-Douglas Debate, and Two-Man Debate. CMA's only state championship team fights on.
