

LTC Eady in the role of range safety officer during range qualifications.

Reginal Leggette puts to good use his skills, hoping for an expert badge.

An efficient Officer of the Day insures that his Sergeants of the Guard understand their duties. Thomas Watford briefs William Berryhill.

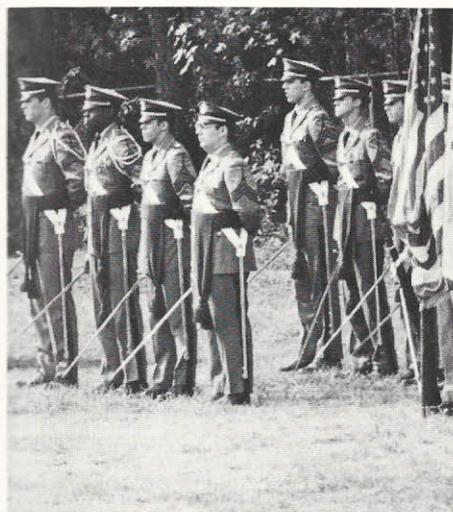

Scott Raynal, voted Most Military, emphasizes the finer points of the second General Order while illustrating why he is popularly known as Douglas MacRaynal.

THE CADET

Moulded by his environment.

Cadets participate in a myriad of activities both on and off campus. Representing the academy in various local ceremonies and parades, qualifying with .22 caliber rifles for Leadership Development classes, and perhaps most importantly, performing assigned military duties delegated to them, might all be on the agenda for the busy young men who proudly call themselves cadets.

Cadet officers pay homage to Vietnam Veterans, on November 11, at the American Legion Post.

Cadets Kevin Hendrickson, Chip O'Dell, James Davis, Bill Jaeger, and Stephen Tindall prepare to post the colors for the Sunday afternoon parade.

Drummers Robert Hedgepath and Ray Hudson provide a background drumroll during the reading of Kershaw County Honor Roll on Veterans Day.