

International Club: Rafael Trinei, Juan Febles, Kagan Ertugrul, Tony Mocklow, Eduardo Rawlins, Juan Botero, Evaristo Partida, Carlos Corredor, Samuel Baez, Ricardo Rawlins, Franco DiMaio, Luis Botero, Juan Acosta, Capt. Robert Gard (advisor).

Fine Arts Club President Richie Cannon and Vice President Evaristo Partida check the progress of Columbia artist Blue Sky's mural underway in downtown Camden.

INTERNATIONAL AND AESTHETIC

Heightening appreciation through club activity.

Cadets from Latin America, the Caribbean, and Middle East gather to increase their understanding and appreciation of the United States host country. Dining out and movie-going are high on the list of club activities.

Fine Arts Club members not only enjoy excursions to art shows and to historic places, but also produce impressive ceramics pieces right here on campus. Mrs. Peggy Taylor assists and inspires cadets in creative effort.

Fine Arts Club: (at table, counterclockwise from 8 o'clock) Alec Geiger, Richard Capell, David Newman, Chris Robertson, Joe Fort, William Berryhill, Sam Felton, Jim Scott, Scott Reynolds. (standing) Richie Cannon, Rafael Trinei, Juan Febles, Evaristo Partida, Ray Hudson, George Pagan, Howard Hunt, Eduardo Rawlins, Major David Green (advisor), Richard Boyd, Chris Sloan, Randy Teague, Mrs. Peggy Taylor (ceramics instructor), Juan Acosta.