

"Mainstreet" provides sound for the corps of cadets at the annual Christmas dance.

BOOGIE TO THE BEAT

The dance floor's alive.

The dance floor is alive with cadets and their dates, dancing to the popular beat of today. Cadets hold four dances: once in the fall, before Christmas furlough, the Junior/Senior, and the long-awaited Commencement Dance. Commander John Feltham and his loyal followers, called the Dance Committee, book fantastic bands from around the South, and set up the gym for a wonderful night of dancing.

Michael Doyle and his date, Donna Felton, display their dancing ability while clapping to a popular song.
