

Block "C" Club. Clockwise from lower right: Major Tucker, Raynal, Hambrick, Onley, Gause, Clemenz, Green, J. Howard, Heape, McCreery, Geisler, J. Davis, Doyle, Lewallen, U. Acosta, E. Rawlins, Hudson, Dimasio, Pagan, Geiger, Bell, Boone, Stewart, Leggette, Holley, Taylor, Mocklow, I. Baucom, Watford, H. Miller, Olson, J. Cannon, Pendergrass, J. Carter, Parshall, Fort, Stephens, L. Baucom, Parker, Pichette.

THE LETTERMEN

Cream of the crop.

Cadets who call themselves Spartans worked to earn a Block "C" whether they lettered in football, basketball, baseball, soccer, track, or drill team. But the time and the effort pay off after the roar of the crowd is stilled, the casts and charliehorses are forgotten. Major Steven Tucker finds the action and calls the plays for club excursions such as a pre-Christmas shopping spree and "munch out" at Columbia Mall. Organization dues and refreshment concession sales at ball games subsidize club outings. Block "C" not only plays ball, but they know how to have one too.

Block "C" Officers. Reginal Leggette, Treasurer; Jay Carter, Vice-president; Major Stephen Tucker, Advisor; Scott Raynal, President; Latta Baucom, Secretary.