

BEAUTIES AND THE BEAT

Girls are especially important to boys who attend an all-male boarding school. In the fall and at commencement, cadets, their dates, families, and friends turn out in numbers to dance the night away. In February, juniors host seniors at the annual junior-senior prom. The Dance Committee does it all.

Cadets are proud of their girls and boastful of their beauty. Each year a photo beauty contest determines Miss Excalibur, pictured opposite page. Traditionally, Miss America has judged competition, but the 1984 incumbent reneged on participation in Camden's annual Christmas parade. In her stead, Jack Brantley, perennial host to Miss America and her entourage here, judged.

Miss Excalibur and her court meet their public at the Commencement Dance. There she is!

Vice-president George Pagan, Commander John Feltham, and President Richie Cannon planning to hang decorations for the fall dance.

Philip Cecil and Cindy Love, Rob Lattimer and Holley Hutchinson, checking out the band.

Doctor 99 supply musical medication.

Dance Committee: Cmdr John Feltham, Adviser, Sam Tyson, Richie Cannon, Rick Faulkner, George Pagan, Paul Craig, Denis Busby, Chris Sloan, Russell Allsbrook, Chris Waters, Ian Baucom, Sean Boone, Dalton Kern, Greg Adcock, preparing for the dance.