

Qualities

Napoleon said it: "From the sublime to the ridiculous is but a step." Sometimes lofty, sometimes ludicrous, these seniors, picked by their peers, evidence to the greatest degree, those standout qualities which mark them as superlative, each the epitome of the category indicated.

Best Personality George Pagan (above) asks with a grin, "How y'all doin'?" His diverse sports capabilities mark Most Athletic Ray Hudson (below) as a most extraordinary jock.
