

Brank gets his head buried in the ground.

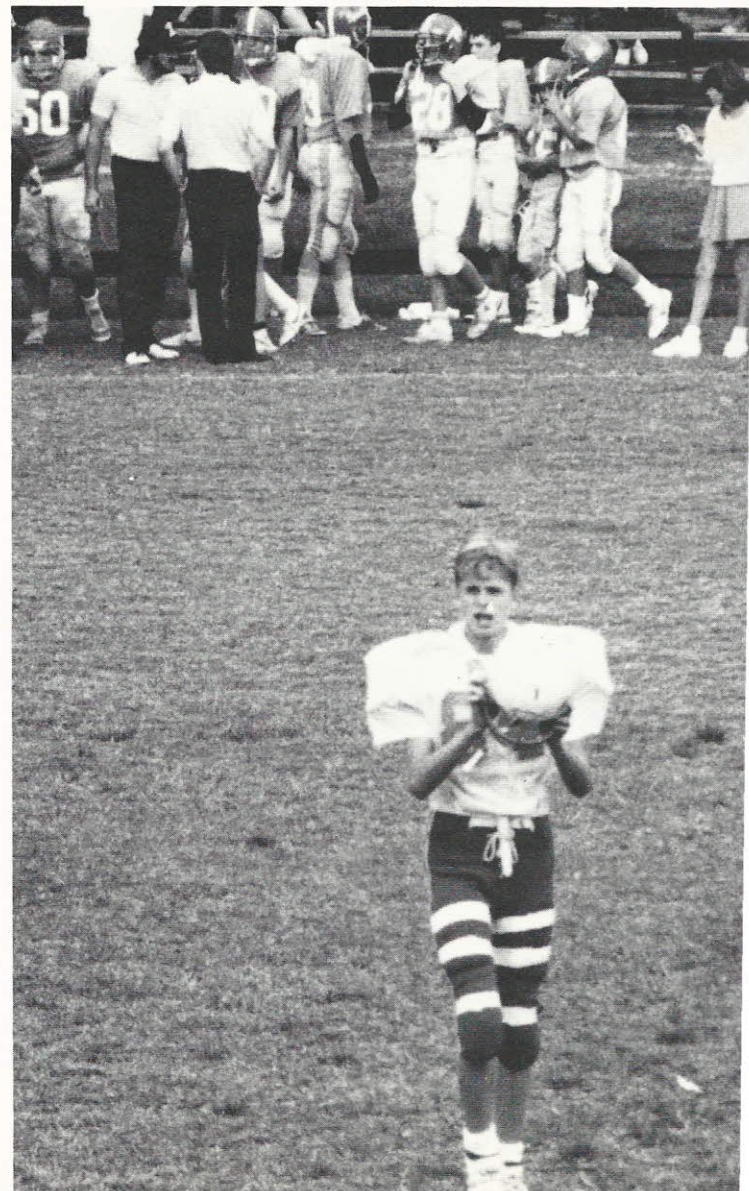

Lumpkin rolls out to try for a successful pass, and look at the great blockage.

Balentine breaks away from the pack and makes a mad dash for the goal line.

The 85-86 J.V. Football team was more of a preparatory program for Varsity than a J.V. team. Although the team only won one game all season, they played hard and gave 110% the whole time.

Fritz von Kolnitz, Danny Parker, and Lonnie Long went on to join the Varsity team after completing their season with the J.V. squad. The team hopes that next year will be a season of more victories and harder play.

von Kolnitz comes away from the toss with a smile of a future victory.
