

DRILL TEAM

The James F. Risher Guard, commanded by Christopher Sloan and advised by Maj. Richard McClendon stand high and proud. They attended Western Carolina, Clemson, and Appalachian drill meets. They perform such maneuvers as fancy platoon, fancy squad, basic platoon, basic squad, and fancy individual. The seventeen members of the James F. Risher Guard perform in precision excellence.

Chris Sloan looks exhausted after a day's work.

Coming toward the reviewing stand in a salute.

Glenn Lumpkin stands as a guide.

Gosh, hope no one gets hurt.
