

CROSS COUNTRY

The 1986 Cross Country Team had a new coach and a new team. Although the team was fairly inexperienced, Coach Ron Glancy already has those that are returning practicing. They are only losing one team member to graduation so next year's team will have the experience necessary to have a winning season. Coach Glancy feels that it will take a few years to get the team to maximum potential.

