

“Ooom’s and Ozone”

Continued.

Opposite clockwise: Dr. Julia Quick, accompanied by Mr. Billy Shepherd, present a mini-concert as part of the Fine Arts Center of Kershaw County’s Arts in the Schools series, October 9, 1987.

Rocking the pool on a summer’s day are Erin Riffel, Greg Hill, Roger Kirby, Will Rutledge, William Pennell, John Murphy, Richie Smith, and Wes Mott.

In faculty-student softball matchup, Catcher Scott Sloan has his eye on the ball as batter Lamar Shaw connects. (Faculty won, 3-2).

The corps of cadets, faculty, and guests recite the Pledge of Allegiance spoken to coincide with recitations all across the nation on Constitution Day, September 16.

South Carolina Speaker of the House Robert Sheheen, Mrs. Lanning P. Risher, and Colonel Risher converse at a Constitution Day reception in the library.

A Central Corrections Institution inmate admonishes the corps to stay straight during a “Get Smart” program in the gym.

Above right: Cadet LTC Lamar Shaw, Battalion Commander, dismisses the corps after an early season parade practice.

Right: On stage Constitution Day are The Honorable Robert J. Sheheen and Colonel Risher.

