

Seniors Les Brown, Steve Carroll, Roger Kirby, Jack McMinn, and Ben Wright led the Spartans through the court season with 19 wins. Ten of the 14 losses were by 10 points or less, decided in the games' last minutes.

Steve Carroll, six-foot five-inch leading scorer, made All-Conference in both the North and the South Carolina leagues. After averaging 29 points per contest in a three-game week, The State recognized Steve as player of the week. Steve and Les Brown were both named First Team All-Conference in the Carolina Athletic Association. Les and Steve finished the season with over 500 points each and Roger Kirby tallied over 300. In addition, a milestone event was Coach Eric Boland's 100th game win at CMA.

Throughout the grueling season, Steve Carroll's relentless scoring, Roger Kirby's deadly aim from three-point range, and Les "Dr. Dunk" Brown's slamming ability amazed and excited the fans. During the long, hard schedule, CMA beat Spartanburg Day for the first time in four years on their home turf. A night to remember was the Spartans' denial of the Heathwood Hall coach's 600th win, widely touted by the media before gametime as a sure thing, with TV crew and cameras on standby to record the non-event.

For the future, juniors Mike Aaron, Carl Gantt, Fritz Von Kolnitz, and late-season-arrival sophomore Henry Taylor possess plenty of potential to keep the Spartan hoopsters on the roll. For now, it's time to savor a season for the record books which Coach Eric Boland and his team chalked up.
