

DRIVING TO WIN

Intensity in competition on the court as well as in practice marked an impressive 9-2 record JV basketball season. Both losses were to Hammond Academy. The drive and the desire to win that the JV Spartans displayed on defense, and the unselfishness that the team played with offensively, coupled with the effort of young Coach Herb McElvain, allowed CMA the successful season that we experienced.

Shooting guards Ian Eastman, Carl Gantt, Ted Hughes, and WC Peeler, all contributed significantly to securing this season's wins. The front court, comprised of Don Accordini, Bryan Cameron, and Chip Godwin, who provided excellent shooting and rebounding, sparked the Spartans' team effort to win, ending the season here at home with a victory over Cardinal Newman. 45-40
