

Bravo Company

"My company is 'B' and 'B' stands for big and bad," states Allen Watford. Ian Osborne advises, "Our taste in music ranges from Led Zeppelin to L. L. Cool J and everything in between." Enjoying their catholic taste in music is LTC Harry Woodmansee, whom Lewis Sharp describes as: "The person who provides the icing on the cake, our Tac Officer. He's special and important to our company because he doesn't rule with an iron fist, he leads with a smile and a kind word. We have leadership, cohesiveness, and good relations among us." Scott Haskell indicates: "My company is the best company on campus. Bravo Company has produced more officers than any other company on campus.

This very year all of the officers on staff came from 'B' Company. I have been in Bravo for five years and would rather turn in my rank than move. We are all one big family, everyone looking out for one another. That is what makes Bravo so great."

Todd Kaminer says, "'B' Company is the best in the whole battalion. We stick together as a team," which Ken Newcombe describes as "a brotherhood of Bravo." To Ted Dailey, "B" is one big happy family and, "We act like fathers and brothers to each other." Vince Minelli sums it up: "Even though everyone says his company is better, it's only talk. 'B' is best."

Staff: 2d Platoon Ldr Strickland, 1Sgt Herron, Tac Officer LTC Woodmansee, Company CO McGraw, Exec Officer Pressley, 1st Platoon Ldr Nelson, Guidon Laird (kneeling).

Fall-in for Sunday Dress Parade, Rob Strickland in foreground.

Saturday Morning Inspection preparations, cooperative effort by Estroff, Hicks, Jesseph (arm holding Confederate Battle Flag), Gadlage, Isom, Kaminer, Kaiser.