

A Learning Time for Wrestlers

With lots of inexperienced wrestlers and a new coach, the Spartan Wrestlers had plenty to learn. But they were quick and strong and eager to win — and the performance got better and better as the season progressed. Coach Andy Barlow, who wrestled four years at The Citadel, commented, “The team is young, but it has a lot of natural talent and skill.” Tom Butler, one of the Varsity wrestlers, pointed out that he learned a great deal during the course of the year and began winning more matches as the season went on. The manager, Rob Merritt, observed that the team had a lot of heart and character. A groundwork has been laid; the potential is there.
