

Alpha: Honor Company

Ask any cadet of A Company what one word sums up "Evil A" and the most likely word to come out of his mouth will be "brotherhood." Although Alpha Company has the best location on campus because it is situated near so many activity spots, that fact alone does not necessarily make it the best company on campus. Continuing leadership and strong bonds between company members, however, have brought Alpha Company through three consecutive Honor Company victories. High ceilings, big rooms, and carpeted floors also contribute to Evil A's better state of living.

Ian Osborne, speaking on behalf of the company, says, "There's nothing that can compare to A Company's friendship, topped off by a TAC officer who cares enough to help."

Co. Commander Whisenhunt gets Brown in order.

A Co. Staff: CO Whisenhunt, TAC Officer LTC Cook, 1st Platoon Ldr Rowe, 2nd Platoon Ldr Osborne, 1SGT Eader, Guidon Pasco.

Top. Two minutes to taps: A Co. gets ready for bed. Bottom. Company Cook-out. Right. "And what goes in here?" Furr gives friends a little rifle quiz.