

Band/Staff: Playing a New Tune

Band Company, the musicians of CMA, have seen a lot of change in the past year. Academics are up, problems are down, and the music sounds better every day. Under the experienced leadership of Col. Woodmansee and Cadet Matt Stokes, the band has taken heed of their talents and played their way to the top. Cadet Joel Gibbons adds, "We make the best of what we have and stick together regardless of our differences."

Band Company also makes dress parades interesting to listen to as well as watch. Chris Witherspoon explains, "We add a certain pizzazz that boosts the morale of the corps." Cpt. Vernon Clamp, instructor and conductor, reflects, "The guys have put forth remarkable effort and have reaped the rewards." Senior cadet, Steve Rogers, sums it up, "I've been in the Band since arriving at CMA four years ago. I wouldn't have it any other way."
