

A Chance to Share

Each year CMA attracts students from other countries. Although the number is down a little this year, these students, as usual, have contributed a great deal to campus life and to our American cadets' understanding and appreciation of other languages, dialects, and cultures.

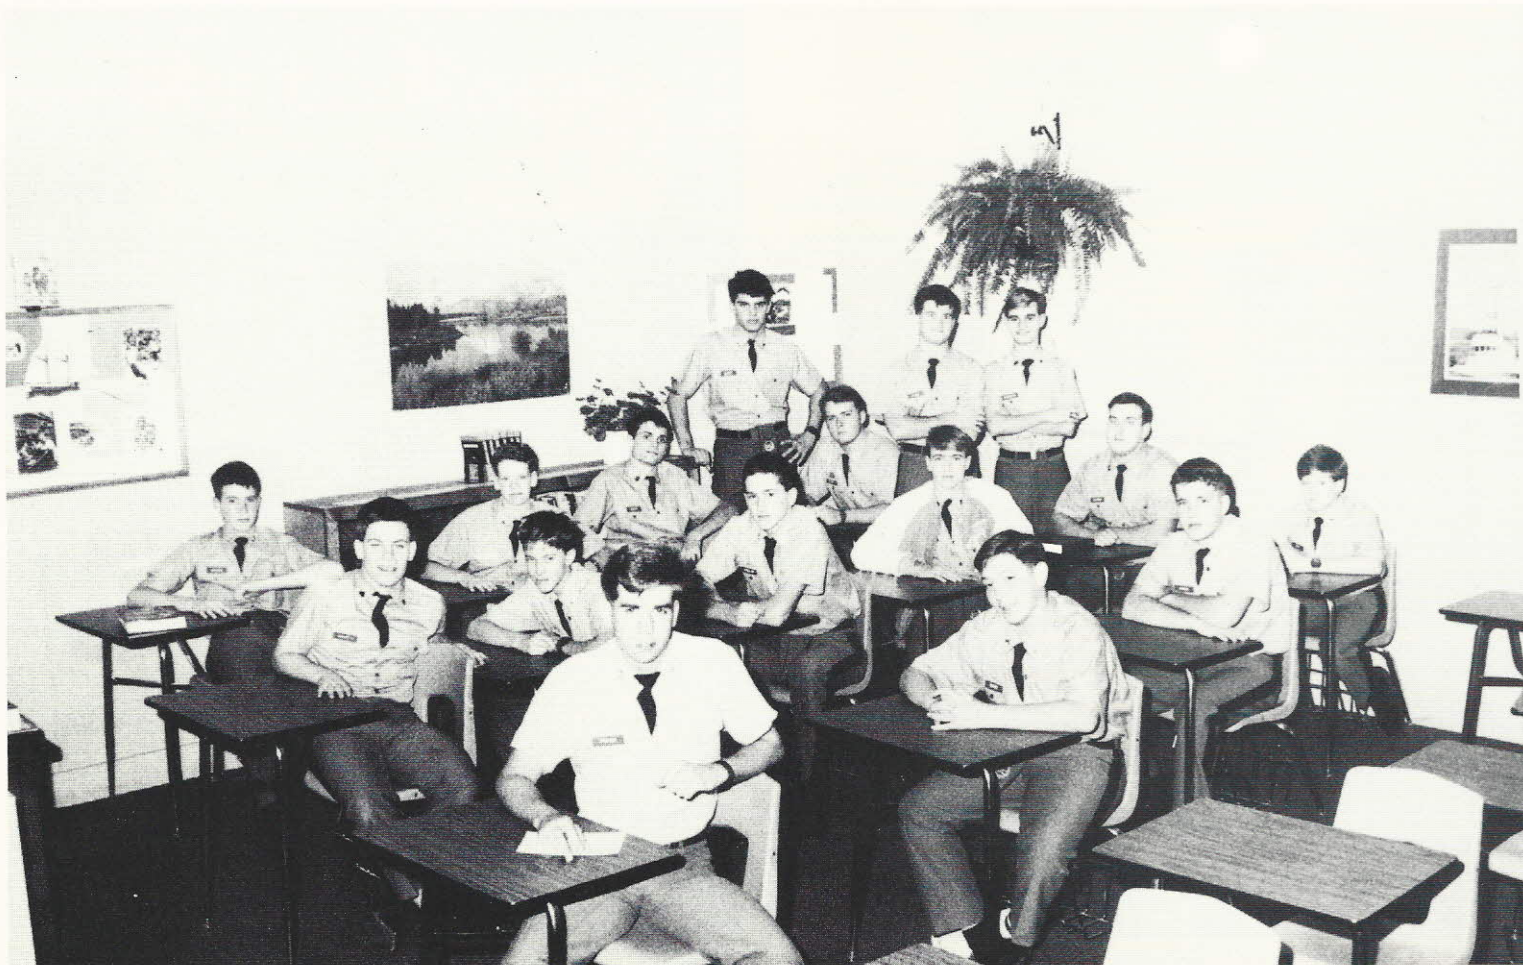

The Fine Arts Club provides a monthly program of speakers, musicians, and artists to instruct and entertain its members. Open to all cadets, the club does much to stimulate interest in the arts. The group also makes occasional trips to visit concerts, museums, and other events and sites of interest.

International Club members Alejandro Vega of Costa Rica, Jose Partida of Mexico, Demian Tucker and Sean Sealey of Bermuda.

Sean Sealey joins Sam Bryant, Jeff Gordon, and friend to help clean up the hurricane mess.

Fine Arts Club (from left): Appleby, Chuck Mosier, Burnett, Pearce, Spencer, Gilson, Boyette, Jones, McDaniel, Stokes, LeVine, Fryar, Blanton, Mason, Doss.