

A company

Company Commander CPT Boyette stands by the guardhouse waiting for annual Drill Team pictures to be taken.

Yates demonstrates conclusively that a big man can be just as agile on a skateboard as anyone else.

Staff: Guideon Lopez, 1SG Avant, 2LT Langley, 1LT Partida, Tac Off CSM Martain, Co Cmdr CPT Boyette.

AWESOME ALPHA

In the 1991-1992 Honor Company, brotherhood is still a big word. According to Plt Ldr 2LT Avant, "We try to be a big happy family and treat one another like brothers." While focused on improving academics, Alpha is also proud of its outstanding athletes, such as Covington, Lavender, and Devore. Although he is generally pleased with the company this year, CPT Boyette stated that one major achievement has been "remaining whole with all the busts and reductions we have experienced."

Vega and company strike a very informal pose on A Company's front steps.

