

Lavender fires from 3-point territory. This year the Spartans were strong outside and in.

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

The 1991-92 varsity basketball team again took the CAA Conference Championship, marking the third time in the last four years that the Spartans have accomplished that feat. This year's team featured a strong inside game combined with a really good outside shooting back-court. This year's season highlights included a school record win streak of 16 games, John Covington's record of 50 points in a single game, Chad Lavender's and John Covington's selections as All-Conference players, and of course the conference championship.

As Covington comes in, Lavender suddenly checks his dribble. He's got the basket in his sights.

Hegeman springs clear of opposing players, trying to can a jump shot from the foul line.

"The strength of this year's team has been a good balance between the inside and outside games and the ability of the players to maintain intensity and momentum down the stretch."
