

Band Company

The Honor Company of 1992 has continued to make strides this year. Under the watchful eye of Tac Officer LTC Mowe and the leadership of new Band Director Steven Reid, the CMA Band continues to please audiences at dress parades and other events. It gave an outstanding performance in the Centennial Parade in October, as well as at the convocation. Company Officer CPT Steve Morris commented, "We have pride in what we do, and we are always striving to become a better, closer, and more personal company."

Band Company Staff: 2LT Prophet, 1SGT McCann, CO CPT Morris. Row 2: SFC Priestester, Tac Off LTC Mowe, 2LT Rhyme.

CMA drummers and buglers participated in the Veterans Day Parade in Camden: Bn Cmdr LTC Davidson, Sander-son, Prophet, Masi, Morris.

Drum Major Ricardo Priestester leads the band in the Centennial Parade.