

1994 Visitors' Day Parade

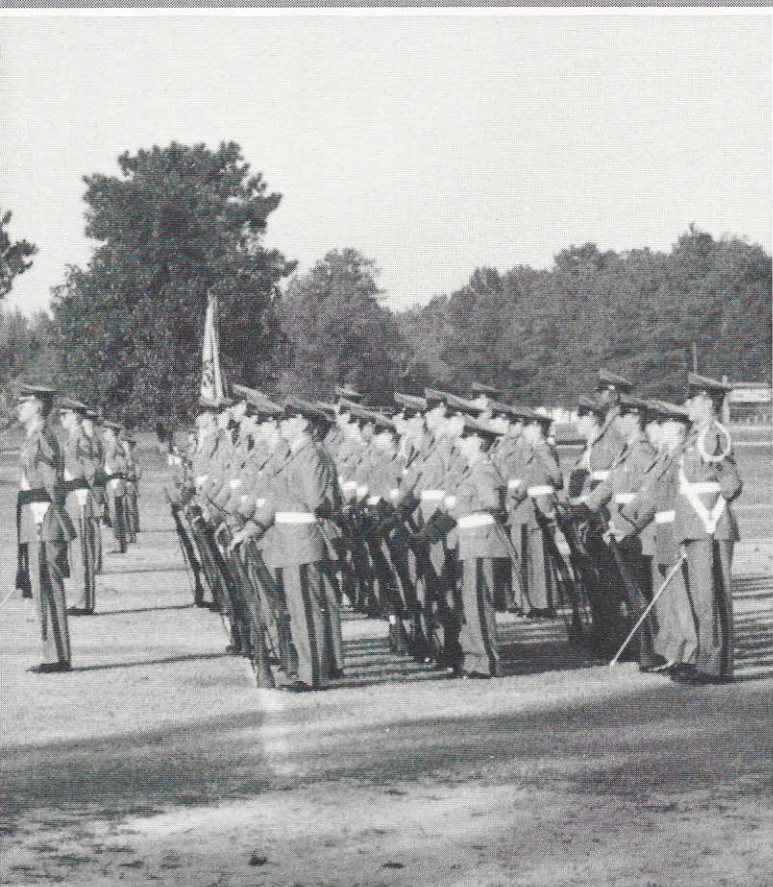

CPT Farris Parker, C Company Commander, and Guideon TB Rippettoe pass the reviewing stand.

Led by 1LT JC Rush, C Company, 2nd Platoon, marches onto the field.

In November Camden Military Academy held its first Visitors' Day of the new school term. The day was preceded by a Saturday night dance attended by cadets, parents, and guests. On Sunday instructors were in their classrooms during the early afternoon to confer with parents regarding their sons' academic progress. After the conferences, a dress parade was held in honor of the parents. The day concluded with a reception in the dining hall.

In the reviewing stand during the parade were honored guests Mr. and Mrs. C. M. VanHouten, parents of Cadet LTC Jonathan VanHouten, Battalion Commander. Mr. and Mrs. VanHouten represented all parents present for Visitors' Day. The parade was a proud occasion for both parents and cadets. Once again, the Cadet Corps turned in an impressive performance on the field.

CPT Bryan McCann and the CMA Band retire from the parade ground.

The CMA Battalion awaits inspection.
