

Leading scorer Ricardo Priester demonstrates his classic dunk.

Varsity Basketball

This year's basketball season started with a bang as the Spartans took two victories in the Kershaw County Shootout. The victories had their price, however, as two All-Conference performers, Ricardo Priester and Clayton Stewart, suffered injuries. In the next contest, All-Conference Honorable Mention Forrest Hundley went down with a hurt elbow. The injury plagued Spartans nevertheless limped to a 6-1 record to take them to Christmas break. Veteran player Brentt Calloway, along with Brooks Manley, Roddy Pick, and Grover Phillips, stepped up to support the injured players. After returning from Christmas break, healthy hoopsters rolled to an 18-3 record, playing one of the toughest schedules ever. The Spartans came away from their 24-4 season with the regular season CAA title as well as the conference tournament championship.

Following through, Ceasar Wright guides a free throw toward the basket.

"Our success this season means that the Spartans have had a hand in the championship for five of the last six seasons. That's a real winning tradition."

-Coach Boland

Guard Brentt Calloway lofts a jumper as Roddy Pick gets set to rebound.

Lugoff-Elgin	W
North Central	W
Forsythe	L
Hargrave Military	W
Bethune	W
Asheville Christian	W
Ben Lippen	W
Carolina Day	W
York High	L
Shannon Forest	W
Carolina Day	W
Ben Lippen	W
NCSD	W
Christ School	W
Asheville School	W
Charlotte Day	L
Spartanburg Day	W
Christ School	L
Asheville School	W
Shannon Forest	W
NCSD	W
Heathwood Hall	W
Asheville Christian	W
Spartanburg Day	W