

C Company

Charlie Company took battalion honors during the 1992-1993 school year as well as in 1993-1994 and is on track to repeat that accomplishment this year. Under the able leadership of CPT Thomas Drygas, company commander, and CSM Martain, tactical officer, the company got off to a solid start this year even though there were many new cadets in the ranks who had to learn the ropes. Fortunately, the older cadets did an impressive job of teaching them the ways of CMA and Charlie Company. After the new cadets had learned how to cope with military life, the company was on the road to success and yet another year of honor.

Charlie Company teaches valuable lessons to the young men in its ranks. "After two years in C Company," says SFC Adam Taylor, "I've learned responsibility, discipline, and pride in myself." And SSGT Blair Smith adds, "I've learned leadership, how to get along with others, and how to work as a team."

Charlie Company knows that it is not just one or two; it is everybody working together that brings honor to the whole company.

Staff: SSGT SM Kramer, Guidon. Row 1: CPT TC Drygas, CO, 1SGT ML Segelke, 2LT JD Yovanovic. Row 2: 2LT CA Tart, CSM Martain, Tac Officer, 1LT DA Chambers, XO.

Led by CPT TC Drygas, CO, C Company marches past the reviewing stand in the first Visitors Day Parade.

C Company cadets show their "togetherness": Hersch, Ferguson, Kingston, Akridge, Sikes, Creech, Ward, and O Penn.