Jason Roger Pope

Jason, the country boy made it. You kept the faith when overwhelming odds were against you. You never hung your head when things were bad. You were determined to finish the task. We never thought you could do it. Thanks for not letting us down. You've made your family proud. We love you.

Mom, Dad,
Grandma, Grandad

Mom and Dad, Thanks for giving me an opportunity. You stuck with me though thick and thin. Without the phone calls and the trips up here, I wouldn't be writing this. I owe to you what I am today. I had my doubts along the way, but I always stayed motivated. The chance of my succeeding was a one in a million gamble on your part. But we hit the jackpot. I did it for you! You're the best parents in the world.

Love,
Jason
