

B Company

Battlin' Bravo

Although Bravo Company has undergone some changes in command this year, its goals remain the same: to encourage academic excellence, to participate in extracurricular activities, and to excel in all aspects of the military program in order to create the true "Camden Military Experience."

In the words of CPT Jeff Key, company commander, "The company runs much more smoothly now, a condition for which we can thank the leadership of CSM Irtenkauf and the capable chain of command — Key, Manley, Moore, Latham, Essey, McGill, and Middleton. We are learning to pull together instead of against each other."

Bravo's Company's togetherness has produced some impressive results. The company has won three out of five inspections and has claimed victory in three dress parades. This year has signified positive changes in attitudes and accomplishments.
