

Cross-country

Harry Bohlander shows his winning form. He was this year's MVP and made the All-Conference second team.

Coach's Award winner, Jason Klinowski, was a steady performer this season.

In 1995 the Cross-country team turned in its best performance in many years. The Spartans competed in six meets and finished fourth in the CAA Conference among a field of seventeen. Building on his success in 1994, Harry Bohlander ranked among the top ten runners in the CAA in 1995 and was named to the All-Conference second team. The season ended on a strong note with a victory over Chesterfield High. Winning honors this season were Harry Bohlander, MVP; Adger Brown, MIP; Brad Blazec and Jason Klinowski, Coach's Award.

Coach LePage times Spartan runners as they complete their circuit on CMA's new track.

Adger Brown's hard work this year earned him the Most Improved designation.

Co-winner of the Coach's Award, Brad Blazec helped his team to its best finish in many years.

Spartans: HE Bohlander, BA Blazec, JA Brown, JR Klinowski, Coach LePage. (Not shown — KD Hause)