

CMA Cadets Visit Governor of Georgia

Invitations from state governors do not usually happen by chance, nor did this one. CMA Cadet Justin Miller is the grandson of Georgia's Governor Zell Miller, who graciously invited Justin and his seventh grade classmates for an overnight stay in the Governor's Mansion on December 12.

The visit began with a tour of the Georgia Capitol, where the cadets met Governor Miller in his office. Next, they went to the World of Coke, where they joined Mrs. Shirley Miller, Georgia's First Lady, for a look into the past, present, and future of Coca Cola.

Following a pizza supper at the mansion that evening, the Governor's bodyguards drove Mrs. Miller and the cadets to a movie theater. They soon realized that they were the only patrons present. The entire facility had been reserved exclusively for them. After watching Ace Ventura: Nature Calls, they returned to the mansion and retired for the evening.

The next morning, the cadets awoke to a delicious breakfast. Then Mrs. Miller showed them around the mansion and its grounds. They completed their Georgia experience when Mrs. Miller accompanied them to the Atlanta Zoo, where they were given a personal tour by the zoo director and his assistant.

Before returning to CMA, MAJ Mobley, Mr. Sims (chaperones), and the cadets thanked their gracious hosts for a very enjoyable and educational experience that everyone will long remember.

Over the years, Georgia's chief executive has been housed in several locations. Shown here is a wing of the present mansion, which was built in 1975.

On the winding stairway in the mansion are TJ Smith, WR Jordan, S Benjamin, CL Edwards, JA Irtenkauf, RH Salley, AJ MacGregor, and CG Young.
