

Michael Benjamin Newberry

Even at a young age, you wanted to be a Citadel cadet.

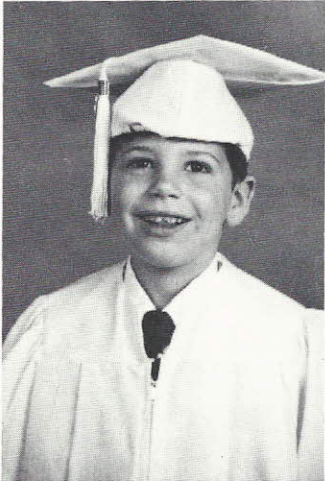

"Pleaseee . . . Mr. Coach, put me in the goal. I know I can do it — I know I can do it — I know I can do it. Mr. Coach, pleaseee, pleasee!"

Ben, remembering the first day we visited Camden and a young cadet gave us a tour of the campus, I kept thinking, maybe this could be my son one day. Ben, you have become that and much, much more. We are so proud of you and what you have accomplished. You are a young man with goals and visions for your life. Hold on to those dreams — they are yours — they will become a reality — you can make it happen. You are a real "joy" to have as a son. We look forward to your years ahead at The Citadel.

Love, Mom and Dale P.S. It's hard to be a man.

Bill Hersch,

May you profit from what you have learned at Camden and from your father and me. Your education has just begun.

*Congratulations and God bless,
Mamma*
