

The Things We Do

Salley and Farmer watch as Bryan Johnson and Greg Semich muscle a new desk into the A Company barracks.

Richard Lewis, Newton, and Courtney find happiness by the Carlisle House.

At the Halloween chemistry demonstrations, Brent Boyd is not hammering his head, merely making a popper go off—an act just as disturbing.

Murray, JB Patterson, and other pad marchers get a break to support the soccer team.

We love out cookouts. Eric Grodzicki and Nick "Cowboy" Bliss are among the first through the line.
