

Wrestling

Mo Amanlou rolls over his opponent, going for the pin.

Pete Engler quickly overpowers his man to get the pin.

Applying a perfect cowboy, Boyd immobilizes his adversary.

The CMA Wrestling Team capped off a successful season with a strong showing at the NCISAA State Championships. The Spartans finished seventh overall despite entering only six wrestlers in the tournament. The regular season was highlighted by an upset of North Central, the state's number one small school in wrestling. That victory enabled CMA to finish with a 7-7 dual meet record. The following Spartans placed in the state tournament: Alan Ross (18-1), second at 160 lbs.; Andrew Black (18-3), third at 198 lbs.; Mo Amanlou (12-8), third at 275 lbs., and Brent Boyd (13-6), fourth at 171 lbs.

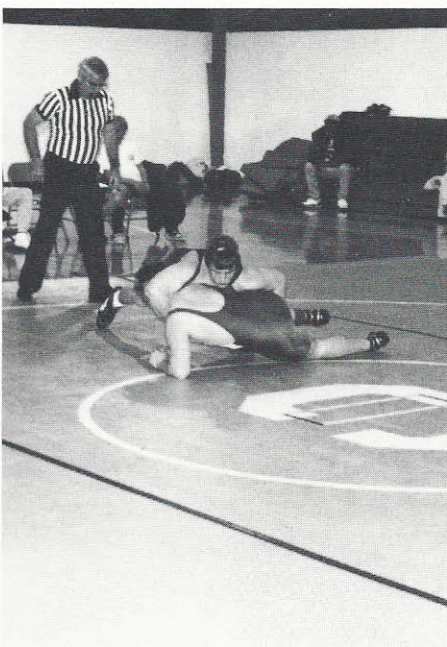

Spartans: NA Blumer, J Lowdermilk, RN Lewis, LC Taylor, BA Blazek, ST Carlson
Row 2: C Edwards, BK Boyd, PM Engler, JJ Barna, PM Amanlou, GA Ross, AK Black, Coach Mitchell

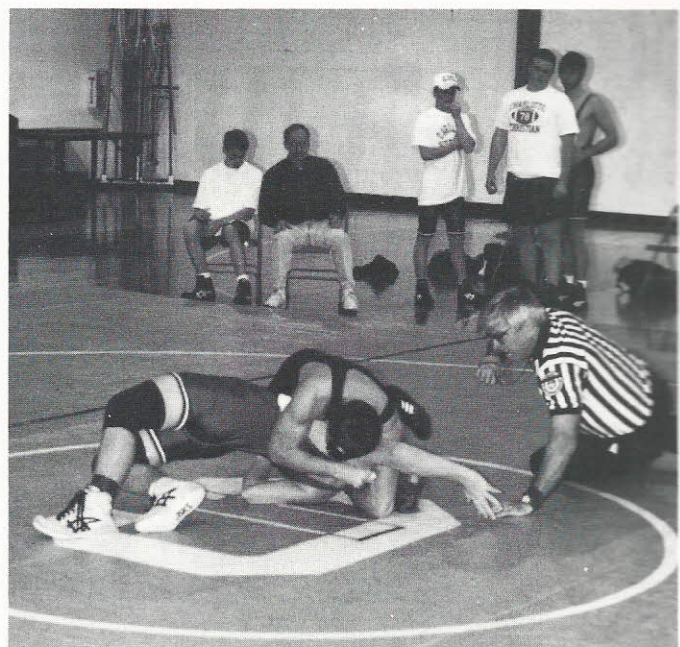

Charlotte Country Day	6-66
Hammond	45-24
Charlotte Country Day	15-42
Chesterfield	51-24
Charlotte Christian	40-39
North Central	36-42
Buford	30-54
North Central	25-54
Hammond	52-9
Charlotte Latin	11-72
Chesterfield	51-24
Edisto	16-66
Chesterfield	47-30
North Central	51-34

Brad Blazek flips his man and drives him into the mat.

AK Black controls his opponent by applying the cradle.

CMA's top wrestler this season, Alan Ross uses a pinning combo to force his adversary over.