

First Annual Homecoming

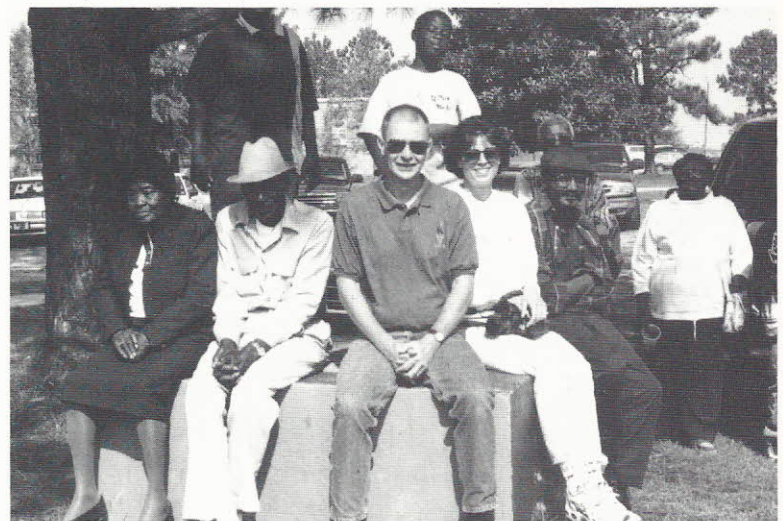

Master Emeritus Lanning P. Risher talks with 1997 CMA alumnus Chris Ables as Steve Young, director of development, helps Mr. Ables with registration.

Over 150 Camden-Carlisle alumni, cadet parents, and grandparents registered for Homecoming.

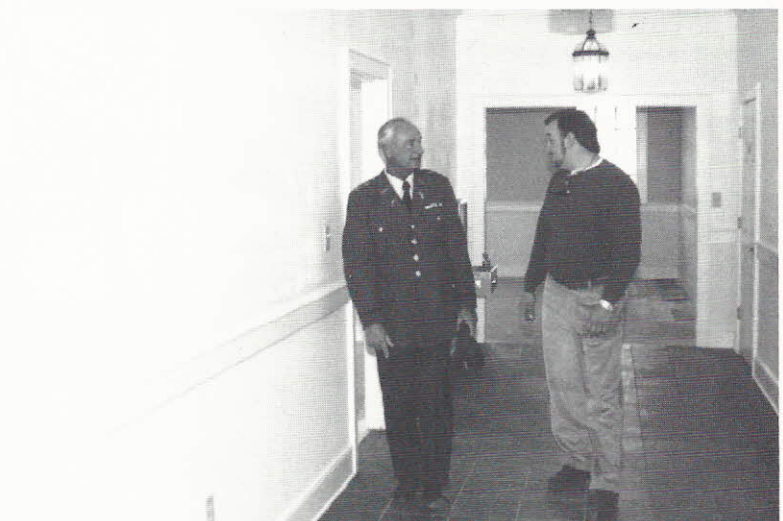

Paul Cook, senior Army instructor, and Lanning P. Risher mingle with old acquaintances among the parade spectators.

These happy watchers have found shady seats at the north end of the parade ground.

While entering the new administration building, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Fox, parents of Cadet Brandon Fox, converse with Cadet Jonathan Fox's grandmother. Jonathan's mother looks back on her way to the tour.

LTC Kelly R. Schrader, academic dean, takes alumnus Chris Blanchard on a tour of the administration building.
