

In the reviewing stand on Visitor's Day are Colonel William K. Orris, headmaster, and LTC Thomas A. Austin, IV, commandant.

On November 9, 1997, Camden Military Academy held its second Visitor's Day of the school term. After lunch, instructors were in their classrooms to confer with parents on the students' academic progress. Following the conferences, a parade was held in honor of the parents. The parade gave parents the opportunity to witness the military skills their sons had mastered. It was a proud occasion for everyone. Once again, the Cadet Corps turned in an impressive performance. The day concluded with a reception in the dining hall.

Drum Major Jake Isbill leads the Camden Military Academy Band onto the parade field.

With Commander FR Olieberg in charge, the Color Guard performs in its usual marching manner.

2LT Rick Lewis paces the first platoon of A Company, Honor Company of 1997.
