1998 Spartans were a young team that gave their all every time they went to the field, but their inexperience kept them out of the win column this season. Although they won only one game, they lost others by a margin of two or three points. The hard road they traveled should serve them well in next campaign. Award winners were BJ Edgar, Most Valuable Player; JT Forgens, Most Improved; JM Lowdermilk, Best Defensive Player; R Phillips-Kow, Midfielder; and MA Robinson, Coach's Award.

Headed for the goal, senior captain BJ Edgar advances the ball downfield. BJ was named Most Valuable Player in 1998.

Joe Lowdermilk gets up high to make another of the many saves he made this season. He was voted Best Defensive Player.

Adger Brown strips the ball from an ACA player before sending it downfield.

WD Johnson eats dust but makes an outstanding defensive play.

Taylor skillfully handles the ball as he gets it into play.

Stuart Hamilton gains control of the ball and prepares to pass.

Senior co-captain Matt Robinson traps the ball as he prepares to clear it downfield. Matt was this year's Coach's Award winner.
