

French: Major Ferjani uses CMA's state-of-the-art language laboratory while instructing cadets Barber, Meraz, Martin, and Farmer. He can transmit, record, and communicate with students individually or collectively.

Physics: Cadets learn the laws of physics through the preparation of rockets that carry eggs aloft to be returned to earth by parachute, without breaking, of course. Gray Curry readies his creation as Major LePage stands by to fire it off.