

J. Adger Brown III

Dear Adger,

For all of your life we have watched you grow and develop into the fine young man you are today. As you grow into adulthood, remember that while you will take on more responsibilities, you will never be alone. Rely on your faith in God, the aid of your friends, and the comfort of your family along your journey. Be a giver and not a taker. Be mindful that with all the joy and happiness we wish for you to experience, your best work will be to make the world a little better place to be.

With all our love,
Mom and Dad
