People of Quality

On the date that the directory in Excalibur 1999 was submitted to the publisher, enrollment in Camden Military Academy stood at 247 cadets. This number is a testament to the appeal the Academy has to the public, to those who make the virtues of the Academy known to the public, and to those who maintain the high standards that create and sustain those virtues. The character of the cadet corps has never been higher. The dedication of the faculty and staff has never been greater. The quality of the people at CMA creates the unique and rewarding experience that our institution offers.

Gene McCaskill, director of admissions, is a principal reason for Camden Military Academy's burgeoning enrollment. Mr. McCaskill has been highly successful in communicating the Academy's merits to prospective cadets and their parents.
