

MAJ Ronald S. Horn, former Band and Staff tactical officer, returned to CMA this year as a mathematics teacher. MAJ Horn brings the same energy and dedication to the classroom that he exhibited in the barracks. He arrives early and stays late.

Adding a new dimension to the faculty, MAJ Ed Westbury teaches US history and economics and serves as cadet corps chaplain and counselor. On Ash Wednesday MAJ Westbury gave ashes and a blessing to Cadet LTC Gray Curry, battalion commander.

New Alumni Secretary Nancy Gleaton comes to the Office of Development and Alumni Affairs with strong computer skills, as well as a pleasant and engaging manner.

After varied experience in private industry, Betty Baker brings her knowledge of business management to the Bookkeeping Department.

As Staff Medical Officer Jake Isbill looks on, LPN Amanda Thomasson checks Cadet Joe Lowdermilk's vital signs.

Coming directly from Ft. Bragg, North Carolina, CSM William Greene joined the CMA staff in February as tactical officer of Band and Staff Company.