

In the reviewing stand on Visitor's Day are Colonel William K. Orris, headmaster, and LTC Thomas A. Austin IV, commandant.

On October 17, 1998, Camden Military Academy held its first Visitor's Day of the school term. Reversing the usual agenda, a parade honoring the parents was held at 10:00 a. m. The parade gave parents the opportunity to view the military skills their sons had mastered. It was a proud occasion for everyone. Once again, the Cadet Corps turned in an impressive performance. Following the parade, instructors were in their classrooms to confer with parents on their sons' academic progress. The morning's activities concluded with lunch in the dining hall.

Fronted by officers 2LT Justin Scholl and CPT Jeff Johnston, C Company awaits the order to march.

Under the command of senior Glenn Murray, the well-drilled Color Guard takes to the field.

Drum Major Sonny Chainey leads the Camden Military Academy Band onto the parade field.
