Getting into the spirit of the impeachment controversy, CMA cadets borrow placards and participate in a demonstration. At the forefront of the action are Cader, Ryba, Hogan, Alrumaih, Benjamin, Griest, Brown, Cooke, Comer, and Kennedy.

In Arlington National Cemetery, cadets view the Eternal Flame at President John F. Kennedy's grave.

Chaperones Mark Sims, Colonel Orris, LTC Boland, and Mr. McCaskill keep watchful eyes on cadets.
