

Joining the CMA faculty this year was Bob Whitmire (CMA '89) one of three alumni presently on the faculty. In addition to his duties as an English and Spanish instructor, Bob coaches JV football and JV golf. A graduate of the College of Charleston, Bob distinguished himself as valedictorian of the CMA Class of '89. He was also class president his senior year, president of the FCA, and a member of the football team.

Another alumnus, Ricardo Priester (CMA '94), joined the faculty at the beginning of second semester. From CMA, he went to Wingate College on a full basketball scholarship. A player of superior ability, Ricardo was invited to try out with the Charlotte Hornets of the NBA and still has some professional options. He teaches science and mathematics and is assistant varsity basketball coach. Ricardo is slated to assume the duties of head basketball coach next season.
