

Taking to the field for a game early in the season, the 1999 Spartan Football Team went on to win the conference championship and by the season's end had placed four players on the All-Conference Team and three on the All-State squad.

Adam Hogan exults after a quick victory over his opponent. Over the past three years, CMA wrestling has progressed from relative obscurity to a sport that attracts student interest on par with football and basketball.