

Conference Champions

Senior Matt Thompson, All-Conference and All-State, finds a huge hole in the line and running room ahead.

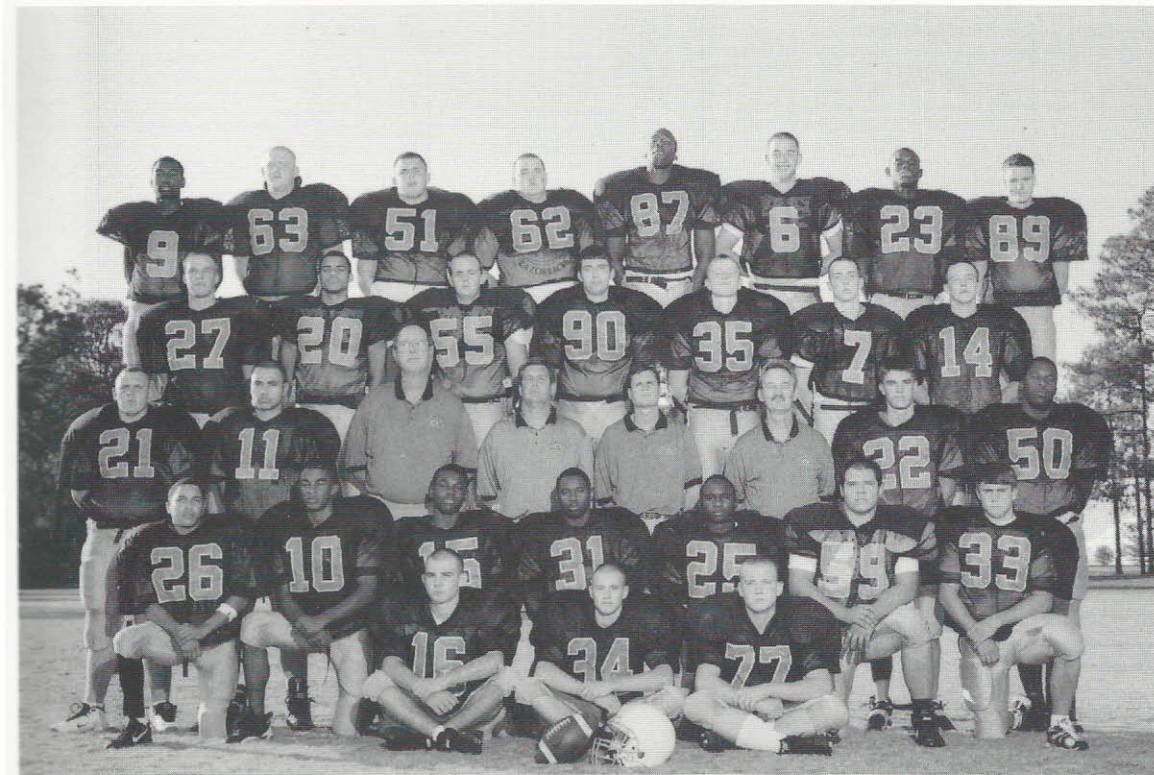

All-State Punter Bron Rathert launches another missile. Bron will be a powerful component in next year's edition of the Spartans.

Jimmy Welch, Most Valuable Offensive Line-man, slams his opponent. An All-Conference player, Jimmy is a definite college prospect.

Most Improved Player, Darshan Laborde, is winning the race to the goal line. A junior, Darshan will be a big asset in the 2000 campaign.

Spartans: AE Berstler, JC Reeves, RL Fletcher
Row 2: MF Sims, JA Henderson, DA Muldrow, JA Gethers, MV Thompson, LA Wilcox, DK Brown
Row 3: TR Ross, SE Kilkuskie, Coach Roberts, Coach Boland, Coach Rice, Coach Mobley, CB Buchanan, CL Brantley
Row 4: CM Higgins, DN Laborde, DD Burr, GC Waidner, HF Sessions, AV Lilla, RL Odom
Row 5: LL Edwards, AD Hogan, JJ Welch, JR Pope, AN Bethea, BC Rathert, DL Kinney, CM Calhoun

Oak Ridge Military	W
Westminster-Catawba	W
Garrett Academy	W
Asheville School	W
Garret Academy	L
Christ School	L
Oak Ridge Military	W
Northside Christian	W
Charlotte Latin	L

Coaches Roberts, Boland, Mobley, and Rice study the action on the field.

To stop the runner, junior cornerback Mark Sims goes low and gets assistance from Foster Sessions and Bron Rathert. Mark is recognized as a solid all-around player with "football smarts."