

Wrestling

The CMA Wrestling Team completed another successful season by achieving all of its goals: winning most of its matches, seeing improvement in all wrestlers, competing in all weight classes, and recruiting and retaining new wrestlers. High points of the season were a victory over rival North Central and defeating Charlotte Country Day for the first time in school history. "It was a fun and successful season," said Coach Hewitt. "Injuries hurt us down the home stretch, causing us not to finish as strong as we would have liked, but we are a young team that will continue to improve in the coming seasons." Notable wrestlers were Nat Harley, who gave strong performances throughout the season; Edens Dennis, one of the best wrestlers in South Carolina in the 130 pound class; Nick Blumer, who won the majority of his matches and continued to improve; and Adam Hogan, who completely dominated most of his matches. Winning awards this season were Nick Blumer, Most Valuable Wrestler; Edens Dennis, Coach's Award; and Adam Hogan, Most Improved Wrestler.

Wrestling at 215 pounds, Adam Hogan is leader on the team and a formidable competitor at all times. He is using a front face lock to roll his opponent over.

Edens Dennis is rolling his opponent over for the pin.

As the referee watches closely, Nathaniel Harley is very close to pinning his man.

Brian Montgomery is controlling his man with a half nelson.

Lucas Scholl attempts a barnyard.

David Brown follows through with a barnyard.

Nick Blumer is using his superior strength to get wrist control.

A leading point maker for the Spartans, Adam Berstler breaks his man down to get wrist control.

A very aggressive wrestler, senior Rusty Gasperson is setting a half nelson.

Adam Hogan uses a combination of strength and quickness to pin his adversary.