“When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child, but when I became a man, I put away childish things.”

1 Corinthians 13:11

“My Bubba,” I love you so much and am so proud that you have made it this far. I know that your future will be bright. It seems like you are way too young to be graduating already. I can still remember the time when I closed your finger in the car door on purpose because of some silly argument. I hope for you nothing but the best in the future and all the happiness life can bring. “If I could choose, there would be no other. For I am so proud that you are my brother.” I love you, Leigh

Barry, you are now a man. We are happy and proud that you have made it to this point in your life. It has been tough on all of us, and we are sure that one day you will tell us that CMA was the best thing that ever happened to you. Your future is ahead of you, and it is wide open. Go make your way. We love you so much, Mama and Daddy
